IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ATTEMPTED CHILD LURING

LOWER PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP (October 2, 2008) - On Wednesday, October 1, 2008 at approximately 5:12 p.m., a 14-year-old female Lower Providence Township resident was walking on Level Road near Yerkes Road, in the Collegeville section of Lower Providence Township. A dark colored, possibly maroon, Toyota or similar vehicle slowed down and entered the opposite lane of traffic. The driver stopped and yelled at the girl to get in his vehicle.

The driver is described as a white male, with a tall build, clean looking face in his 30's, with short blonde hair in the front with darker hair in the back. This subject had a round-looking face. According to the 14 year old, the driver spoke with a slight accent, possibly Irish or British. The subject was seen wearing a mid-length blue shirt.

The female described the vehicle as being dirty in the inside and noticed an odor of cat urine coming from the interior. This vehicle also had several scratches on the driver's side near the door.

Anyone having any information on the driver or vehicle is asked to contact the Lower Providence Township Police Department at 610-539-5900.
