Community Alert

April 11, 2013

Recently, the Lower Providence Township Police have received numerous complaints about thefts of bicycles and scooters. Most of these thefts have been occurring in the apartment complexes throughout the Township. Remember to copy down serial numbers and lock up your bikes. Parents, if you notice your child playing with an unfamiliar bike or scooter, you can drop off the item at the police station and we'll attempt to return it to the owner.

If you have any questions or you can assist with these theft investigations, contact LPPD at 610-539-5901.
