Community Alert:

During February 2013, there have been two burglaries of vacant properties within Lower Providence Township. Copper piping was removed from the basements of homes on Lantern Lane and Moyer Road. Residents living near vacant properties are encouraged to report suspicious activity.

If your home or property will be vacant, consider utilizing Lower Providence Township Police Department's Vacation or Vacant Home Checks. At the request of a resident or property owners, a police officer will check the vacant property at least once per day. This service may be received by simply calling the Police Dispatch Center at (610) 539-5901 prior to the departure date and providing the dispatcher with the required information.
