Township Wins Statewide Communication Awards

LOWER PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP (January 5, 2012) – Lower Providence Township has received two awards for its entries in a statewide communication contest. The Township received first place in the Annual Report category, and second place in the Newsletter category for townships larger than 10,000.

The contest is hosted by the Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors (PSATS). Held annually for the past 43 years, the contest recognizes townships that have successfully communicated information to residents.

All entries were judged on the usefulness of information presented and how well the information was communicated to readers. Publications also were judged on their overall attractiveness and readability.

Judges for the contest include members of PSATS' Publications-Public Relations Committee, representatives from the Governor's Center for Local Government Services, and staff members of the Pennsylvania Township News, the association's award-winning monthly magazine.

PSATS represents the state's 1,455 townships of the second class. These townships represent more residents – 5.4 million – than any other type of political subdivision in the Commonwealth.
