IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOWER PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP (January 18, 2012) - On Tuesday, January 17, 2012 at 10:11 p.m. the Lower Providence Township Police Department responded to an armed robbery that occurred at the Walgreens Pharmacy in the 2800 block of Ridge Pike in the Trooper section of the Township.

An investigation revealed that a male subject, wearing a light gray hooded sweatshirt, a black cap and a dark cloth over his face entered the store which had just closed. The subject entered the rear office and confronted three employees of Walgreens and demanded that they lay on the floor. The subject was armed with a black handgun. An unknown amount of money was taken during the robbery.

No injuries were reported. The Lower Providence Township Police Department was assisted by the West Norriton Township Police Department.

Anyone with information is requested to contact the Lower Providence Township Police Department at 610-539-5900.
