IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOWER PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP (May 18, 2017) - Emergency units were dispatched to the 500 block of South Park Avenue, in the Audubon section of Lower Providence Township, for a one-vehicle crash at approximately 2:51 a.m. Thursday, May 18. Arriving units found an overturned tractor trailer with the driver and only occupant trapped in the vehicle. The driver, Jeremy Marquette, age 44 of Fairview Drive in Leesport, PA, was found to be deceased in the vehicle.

The tractor trailer was fully loaded with milk. Damage from the collision caused approximately 4000 gallons of the product to leak from the vehicle into a yard and nearby drainage area. Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection was notified and is supervising the clean-up and restoration of the area.

Assisting at the scene were:

- Lower Providence Township Police
- Lower Providence Volunteer Fire Company
- Lower Providence Community Ambulance
- Upper Providence Township Police
- Plymouth Community Ambulance
- Collegeville Fire Company
- Norristown Fire Department

This crash is currently under investigation by the Lower Providence Township Police Department. Anyone with information is asked to contact Corporal Richard Aston at 610-539-5901.
