Press Release

Type: Sexual Assault Investigation
Date: Sunday, September 3, 2017
Time: Approximately 11:30 p.m.

On Monday, September 4, 2017 at 12:50 a.m., West Norriton Township Police were dispatched for a meet complainant at the Wal-Mart store, 650 South Trooper Road. Based on the circumstances West Norriton Township Police notified Lower Providence Township Police and a joint investigation began.

Upon police arrival a female victim reported she had been out for a walk around 11:30 p.m. when she was approached by a vehicle in the 2700 block of Lantern Lane, Audubon section of Lower Providence Township. The vehicle stopped near her and the driver and only occupant exited the car. He then grabbed the victim and forced her into the vehicle. The suspect then drove her to a secluded area on General Armistead Avenue in West Norriton Township where the victim was sexually assaulted.

The victim was transported to Abington Hospital for treatment of injuries sustained during the incident. Efforts are being made to complete a full interview and develop a sketch of the suspect based on the victims' ability to further discuss the incident.

The suspect is described as a dark skinned black male in his twenties, approximately 6' tall; thin build, with black tapered high top hair and curly at the top. He was wearing tan or white sweatpants and a red shirt and he spoke with a Caribbean Island sounding accent. The vehicle is described as a silver sedan, possibly a Nissan, less than ten years old with tinted windows and a gray interior. A possible suspect vehicle photograph from traffic video cameras is attached.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Lower Providence Detective Scott Dreibelbis at 610-635-3558 or sdreibelbis@lowerprovidence.org
