IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOWER PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP (July 31, 2009) – Lower Providence Police continue to actively search for SETH THOMAS GRIFFITH who is wanted for the attempted rape of a 19-year-old female on July 27, 2009.

Detectives were in the Lewisburg, PA area on July 30, 2009 conducting interviews and searching for GRIFFITH. The Pennsylvania State Police - Juniata Barracks, and the Mifflin County Regional Police Department assisted us. Police learned that GRIFFITH had been in the area on July 27 and 28 but had left.

Late in the afternoon on July 30, 2009 police received a phone tip from the Pittsburgh area relating that GRIFFITH was observed in Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh police were notified and were unable to locate him.

Police believe that GRIFFITH is fully aware that he is wanted and is actively trying to avoid capture. Detectives are continuing to interview family and friends of GRIFFITH in an attempt to locate him or have him turn his self in.

The Lower Providence Township Police Department is requesting assistance in locating GRIFFITH. Anyone with information is asked to call the Lower Providence Township Police Department Detective Division at 610-539-5900 or their local police department.
