

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Karen Hegedus Recognized as PRPS Distinguished Member
*Award Presented by the PA Recreation & Park Society

LOWER PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP (March 29, 2018) – Karen Hegedus, Recreation Superintendent for the Lower Providence Township Parks and Recreation Department, was awarded the Pennsylvania Recreation & Park Society's 2018 Robert D. Griffith Distinguished Member Award. Karen was honored at the society's annual convention held in March.

Candidates for the award are current professional members, with a minimum of 10 years compensated experience, who have consistently contributed to the advancement of the Society, affiliated organizations or the profession through a variety of ways.

Karen is the 46th recipient of the honor, which was first awarded in 1976.

Karen Hegedus with Kirk Rakos, PRPS president.

