LIFE SAVING

LOWER PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP POLICE DEPARTMENT

Officer Eric S. Honick

On December 25, 2020 at 8:33 PM, Officer Eric S. Honick responded to the 300 block of South Park Avenue for a report of a female choking inside her home. When Officer Honick arrived on scene, the patient's husband was already performing the Heimlich Maneuver, but was unsuccessful and the patient had stopped breathing. Without delay, Officer Honick took over and performed the Heimlich Maneuver and was able to expel the food that was lodged in the patient's throat and prevent an untimely death.

Your actions in this incident represent an outstanding accomplishment in the protection and preservation of life. You are to be congratulated for your performance and the professional manner in which you conducted yourself in this matter. As a result, you are being awarded this Life Saving Commendation in conformance with General Order 303 on this 4th day of March 2021.

By order of,

Michael Jackson
Chief of Police
