DISTINGUISHED UNIT

LOWER PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP POLICE DEPARTMENT

Detective Scott Dreibelbis

On September 12, 2020, members of the Lower Providence Township Police Department were dispatched to multiple residential burglaries that occurred on Lloyd Lane. An investigation was initiated, and early evidence obtained included video surveillance from a home that was burglarized. A crime bulletin was created and disseminated throughout the tri-state area.

On September 19, 2020, Officer Eric Honick and Officer Niles Luong, were on routine patrol when they observed a male inside of a vehicle that fit the description of the suspect from the crime bulletin. The officers made contact with the suspect and identified him as Junine Garnett. Due to a lack of probable cause, Garnett was released, and the information was forwarded to Detective Michael Nastasi, who became the lead investigator on this case. The investigation continued over the next three months with the assistance of Detective Charles King, Detective Scott Dreibelbis, and Detective Sergeant Michael Higgins, who participated in countless hours of surveillance and other follow-up tasks. Junine Garnett fled the area and over the next several months eluded capture. The Lower Providence Township Police Department requested the assistance of the U.S. Marshals Service in apprehending Garnett. On May 18, 2021, Garnett was arrested without incident at a residence in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. He was charged with a total of eight residential burglaries and eight attempted burglaries that occurred in not only Lower Providence Township but throughout Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.

Your participation in this incident and the safe apprehension of the suspect represents an outstanding accomplishment in the protection of life and property. This accomplishment was made as a result of teamwork with decisive and professional actions, strategies and tactics. Accordingly, this Distinguished Unit Citation is being conferred upon you in conformance with General Order 303 before the Board of Supervisors of Lower Providence Township on this 15th day of July 2021.

By Order Of,

Michael Jackson
