

LOWER PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP
MONTGOMERY COUNTY, PA

Proclamation

Earth Day – April 22, 2021

WHEREAS, the inaugural Earth Day was celebrated 51 years ago when millions of Americans rallied for a healthy, sustainable environment, recognizing the role every person plays in preserving our natural resources; and

WHEREAS, Lower Providence Township is blessed with natural beauty and green spaces that enrich the lives of both our residents and visitors, providing habitats for varied plants and animals, sustainable natural resources, and diverse recreational opportunities; and

WHEREAS, Lower Providence Township is committed to the increased use of renewable energy and supports projects that demonstrate and encourage energy conservation and sustainability.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of Supervisors of Lower Providence Township hereby proclaims April 22, 2021 as Earth Day in Lower Providence and encourages all citizens to become engaged in local and global efforts to preserve the Earth's health, beauty and resources today and for future generations.

PROCLAIMED this 15th day of April 2021.

Peter MacFarland, Chairman

Lower Providence Township
Board of Supervisors
