

Volunteer of the Year

The Lower Providence Township Board of Supervisors is accepting nominations for the 2022 “Volunteer of the Year Award.”

About the Award

The Volunteer of the Year Award is presented annually to an individual, group or organization who has performed outstanding service or made an exceptional contribution to the community by volunteering their time and talents. Anyone with community contact may nominate an individual or group they feel meets the criteria of the award. The recipient of the award is not made aware that they have been selected until the actual day of the award ceremonies which will occur during the second Board of Supervisors’ meeting in December.

The award recognizes the inspiring efforts of volunteers and the selection committee looks for an individual or organization who continually gives of their time for the betterment of the Lower Providence community and who demonstrates commitment, service, creativity, and cooperation in their volunteer capacity.

If you are aware of an individual or group who has given unselfishly to help others or who meets any of the above criteria, you may also pick up a nomination application at the Lower Providence Township Building. Further information may be obtained by contacting Denise Walsh, dwalsh@lowerprovidence.org, 610-635-3531.
