After 35 years of service, Officer Daniel McGuffin retired on April 30, 2021 from the Lower Providence Township Police Department. Officer McGuffin is a 1978 graduate of Archbishop Carrol High School in Radnor, Pennsylvania. He attended Ursinus College and received his Associates Degree in Police Science in December of 1983 from Montgomery County Community College. He attended the Montgomery County Police Academy and graduated in April of 1984. He was hired as a police dispatcher with the Lower Providence Township Police Department on July 1,1985 and was sworn in as a full-time police officer on September 21,1987.

Officer McGuffin served in the Patrol Division and was assigned to the Traffic Safety Unit for many years. While in the Traffic Safety Unit he implemented several initiatives that significantly improved conditions for township residents and the motoring public within our community. He was responsible for coordinating the police departments responses to all traffic complaint forms and providing feedback to residents, analyzing enforcement activities to ensure that police resources are directed to those areas that are most warranted, reviewing and analyzing accident data for enforcement efforts and to develop recommendations to decrease accident rates.

Officer McGuffin has also been awarded several Distinguished Unit Citations for his actions during his tenure as a police officer with Lower Providence Township Police, as well as numerous letters of commendation. In 2010, Officer McGuffin was honored and awarded with the Respect For Law Award from the Lower Providence Optimist Club.

Congratulations Dan, we wish you all the best! Enjoy retirement life, you deserve it and served your community and department well. Thank you for your service.
