Township Wins Statewide Communication Award

LOWER PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP (January 5, 2016) - Lower Providence Township's efforts to keep its residents updated and informed has earned the municipality an award in the Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors' 48th Annual Township Citizen Communication Contest. The Township received first place in the Annual Report category.

The contest recognizes townships that have successfully communicated information to residents. All entries were judged on the usefulness of information presented and how well the information was communicated to readers. Publications also were judged on their overall attractiveness and readability.

Judges for the contest include members of PSATS' Publications-Public Relations Committee, representatives from the Governor's Center for Local Government Services, and staff members of the Pennsylvania Township News, the association's award-winning monthly magazine.

PSATS represents the state's 1,453 townships of the second class. These townships represent more residents – 5.5 million – than any other type of political subdivision in the Commonwealth.
